

Habitat Dedicates 40 Edgecomb Street, Hamden

The long awaited dedication of 40 Edgecomb Street, Hamden, took place Saturday, March 27.

40 Edgecomb Street, Hamden

The event had been postponed from February 27 because of bad weather, but the stunning new home was worth the wait!

Friends and supporters of Habitat and Sleeping Giant Build joined proud new homeowner Robert Henderson, son Mahdi, and daughter Bobbi to celebrate. Mayor Scott Jackson who, as the Town's Chief Financial Officer, had been present at the groundbreaking ceremony, was the keynote speaker. Mr. Henderson and his children received a new toolbox full of tools, a gift basket, and a mailbox as housewarming gifts. Children from Spring Glen United Church of Christ in Hamden, one of the premier sponsors of Sleeping Giant Build, wrote the Hendersons a special note for the occasion. Olive Garden, North Haven, generously provided refreshments.

The three-bedroom, one-and-a-half bath, Cape Cod-style home was designed by nationally known architect and Habitat Board member Duo Dickinson. Engineering services were provided by DiBlasi Associates, Monroe, CT, a longtime supporter of Habitat.

40 Edgecomb Street is the second Habitat homebuilding project undertaken by Sleeping Giant Build. The group is currently raising funds to build a third Habitat home in New Haven. New sponsors and volunteers are always welcome.

Please contact Habitat co-chairs Don Deloge at deloge@yahoo.com or Mike Healy at healy449@comcast.net if you would like to be actively in-

Arrests Made in Seven Year Old Case

On November 24, 2002, Hamden Police responded to a home invasion that occurred on Morse Street. Investigation revealed that three individuals entered the basement, and handcuffed and duct taped the mouth of a person who was repairing the furnace. His wallet and cell phone were taken.

Investigation further revealed that the three individuals then entered the living quarters and proceeded to the bedroom. They then held the 32 year-old resident at gunpoint. The resident then struggled with the gunman, at which time a shot was fired. The resident was struck on the head several times with the firearm. He sustained a head laceration. The three individuals then fled from the residence.

On April 13, 2010, Detective Raymond Quinn of the Hamden Police Department, who is currently assigned to the United States Marshals Connecticut Violent Fugitive Task Force, participated in the arrest of Thomasina Evans. The other two individuals, who allegedly committed the crime, were arrested shortly after the incident. Evans was arrested at her residence, 173 Franklin Road in New Haven. She was charged with Robbery in the First Degree, Burglary in the First Degree, and Criminal Trespass. Evans, who is 27 years of age, was 20 years old when the crime was committed.
